“There are places and times for things.” ~ Adriana Ocampo Senior

Adriana Ocampo Senior is an award-winning thought-leader, best-selling author, and dynamic keynote speaker.

She transforms how organizations think about leadership, diversity, and innovation. Author of Your Journey to Transcendent Leadership and founder of T.I.A. Ltd. Co., Adriana combines 28 years of Fortune 500 aerospace leadership with powerful frameworks that inspire action and drive measurable change. Her remarkable journey from Colombia to senior executive at Boeing, leading international teams across 25+ countries and managing $100M+ portfolios, offers authentic insights into breaking barriers, building inclusive cultures, and achieving operational excellence.

Adriana has 28 yrs. of experience in the aerospace industry, transforming businesses and driving operational excellence. She excels in portfolio management, cross-functional leadership, and delivering strategic outcomes across geographically dispersed teams.

Her expertise spans program management, business development, and supplier management, all while fostering innovation and efficiency.

Adriana has held a series of impactful leadership roles, including leading operational excellence for Boeing's Global Technical Operations, integrating engineering services for Boeing and Embraer's joint venture, and serving as Chief of Staff to senior executives. Her deep understanding of both commercial and defense sectors, coupled with her ability to navigate complex global partnerships, positions her as a key asset to any board.

Adriana began her career as a pioneer in transforming the Boeing Production System by implementing lean manufacturing practices, which helped improve efficiency and reduce waste in various production lines. Early in her tenure, she became a certified Lean+ Practitioner and Six Sigma Green Belt, leading key initiatives such as the F/A-18 Super Hornet Pulse Line Implementation and several lean transformations at Boeing facilities around the world, including in the Czech Republic, Arizona, and Seattle.

Her expertise in lean manufacturing played a pivotal role in optimizing complex processes, driving continuous improvement, and reducing operational costs, positioning her as a thought leader in production efficiency. Adriana's ability to apply industrial engineering principles to real-world manufacturing challenges contributed to Boeing's operational excellence and set the stage for her continued leadership in the aerospace industry.

Passionate about community and a champion for equity, and inclusion, Adriana is committed to advancing the representation of women and Hispanics in STEM fields. She currently serves on the Board of the DFW Hispanic 100 Latina Leaders organization, is a Lifetime Member of the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE), and actively serves on various boards, including High-Tech High Heels North Texas, where she focuses on expanding opportunities for growth and economic empowerment for traditional disadvantaged communities

In 2024 Adriana established “The Ocampo-Senior STEM Scholarship” in tribute to her parents, with the purpose to empower and support Hispanic female college students to excel in their academic pursuits and become valuable contributors to the STEM community.

Adriana is also the founder of T.I.A. (Transcend, Influence, Ascend), a Business Consulting and Executive/Leadership Coaching firm designed to propel individuals and organizations to new heights of success, and to build resilient, collaborative, and high-performing leaders.

Adriana has earned several accolades throughout her career for her impactful work as an executive and community leader. Most notable awards and recognitions include the 2026 (50) Women to KNOW in Texas, 2025 Latino Leaders Dallas Maestro Award, 2024 Rodrigo Garcia Founder’s Award by SHPE, 2024 Women of Distinction by the Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce (TAMACC), and 2024 Empowering Latinas by United Latinas. In 2018, Adriana was the first Hispanic and seventh female to be inducted into the University of Missouri Industrial Systems Engineering (ISE) Hall of Fame, and received the Women of Color in Technology Community Service Award for her dedication to serving the community and advancing STEM education. These accolades reflect Adriana’s commitment to excellence, innovation, and her passion for empowering others in the aerospace and STEM fields.

Adriana holds a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering from the University of Missouri-Columbia and a Master of Business Administration from Maryville University. She is fluent in English, Spanish, and Portuguese, bringing a wealth of international and multicultural experience to her work.

HISPANIC STARS RISING, VOLUME II
- CONTRIBUTING AUTHOR (SEPT. 2021)

Hispanics are 100% Hispanic and 100% American. They believe in the American dream and are incredible contributors to the country. According to the 2020 Census, US Hispanics grew by 23%, they represent 40% of workforce growth and an astounding 74% of new workers in the United States are Hispanic, their buying power is $2.6 trillion dollars - and the list goes on! Yet, they are often invisible, negatively portrayed, seen as takers. Hispanics contribute so much to the US, and it is time for others to recognize this reality.

Hispanic Stars Rising: Volume II shares stories of the experiences, challenges, and successes of Hispanic Stars nationwide. It showcases the diverse backgrounds, obstacles and contributions made by this strong and resilient population nationwide and shines a light on the beauty of this fundamental American community.

LATINAS IN AVIATION VOLUME 4

Latinas in Aviation by Jacqueline S Ruiz is a celebration of the rarest women in the industry, told through stories of their triumphs, their falls and their most crowning achievements. Hear from retired veterans as well as new graduates, pilots as well as aviation administrators, military and civilians, all with a unique passion for aviation and its impact on our world. Each author inspires, entertains and sets the stage for the next generation of Latinas who look to the sky with a dream.

“Adriana has been an invaluable mentor, always encouraging me to push beyond my comfort zone and strive for excellence. One particular moment that stands out to me was when Adriana helped me prepare for a first-line manager position interview. She made herself available beyond work hours to provide guidance based on her extensive experience as a Senior Manager. Her insight helped shape my perspective on leadership and the importance of community involvement.”

~ Nathalie Quintero, Core Stage Launch Operations Technical Lead Engineer

“I had the opportunity to witness Adriana as a successful mentor to students and professionals. Her mentoring style is characterized by empathy, patience, and a genuine desire to see others succeed. She actively engages with mentees, providing guidance not only in academic pursuits but also in personal and professional growth. Her ability to listen attentively and tailor advice to individual needs sets her apart as an outstanding mentor. Adriana has consistently gone above and beyond by hosting networking events in her own home and connecting mentees with valuable resources. Her encouragement and belief in the potential of each mentee have inspired countless individuals to reach for the stars.”

~ Dr. Dora Renaud, CEO, Bossa Ed Consulting

“Adriana’s mentoring extends far beyond mere guidance; it encompasses countless interactions, both individual and group conversations, aimed at inspiring and empowering our students to realize their full potential. What truly sets Adriana apart is her unwavering commitment to the personal and professional development of our students, demonstrated through her willingness to go above and beyond by traveling to San Antonio at her own expense to deliver inspirational talks to our SHPE and SWE chapters.”

~ Juan D. Ocampo, PhD. Chair of Engineering at St. Mary’s University, San Antonio, TX

“Como mentora del instituto UNNO, Adriana Ocampo ha propuesto enfatizar en el desarrollo de proyectos, estrategias y actividades de educación STEM con enfoque de género sostenibles a largo plazo. Además de esto, cada vez que Adriana tiene oportunidad de visitar nuestra ciudad, ella realiza charlas inspiradoras a niñas y jóvenes en las escuelas públicas de Bogotá. Desde su capacidad de liderazgo, Adriana también ha sido mi mentora, promoviendo en mis habilidades de liderazgo y empoderamiento femenino, las cuales me han permitido dentro de mi rol como directora del Instituto UNNO, liderar apuestas que promuevan oportunidades a más niñas y mujeres desde la educación STEM con impacto local, regional, nacional, y en Latinoamérica.”

~ Viviana Garzón Cardozo, Directora de Instituto UNNO-UNIMINUTO, Bogotá, Colombia

“Como presidente del grupo estudiantil Astronorte, el barranquillero destaca cómo la charla con la ingeniera Adriana Ocampo Senior dejó una marca profunda en él. “El proyecto que recuerdo con más cariño fue la charla que tuvimos en la época de la virtualidad con Adriana Ocampo Senior; fue una actividad complicada en el momento de contactar a la ponente, pero salió muy bien. Tuvimos uno de los espacios de mayor aprendizaje en Astronorte, formando una gran amistad y un espacio maravilloso para todo.”

~ José Daniel Carrillo Patiño, estudiante del programa de Ingeniería Mecánica, Universidad del Norte de Barranquilla, Colombia
